Ingredients

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 2 tbsp granulated sugar
- 2 tsp baking powder
- 1/2 tsp baking soda
- 1/2 tsp fine salt
- 2 cups buttermilk, room temperature
- 2 large eggs
- 3 tbsp unsalted butter, melted and cooled
- 1 tsp pure vanilla extract
- Neutral oil or butter for the pan
- Maple syrup and fresh berries to serve

Method

1. Whisk together flour, sugar, baking powder, baking soda, and salt in a large bowl.
2. In a separate jug, whisk buttermilk, eggs, melted butter, and vanilla until combined.
3. Pour the wet ingredients into the dry and fold gently until just combined — lumps are fine; do not overmix.
4. Rest the batter for 5 minutes while you heat a non-stick skillet or griddle over medium heat.
5. Brush the pan lightly with oil or butter.
6. Pour 1/3 cup batter per pancake onto the skillet. Cook until bubbles form across the surface and the edges look set, about 2–3 minutes.
7. Flip and cook for a further 1–2 minutes until golden and cooked through.
8. Keep finished pancakes warm in a 90 °C oven on a wire rack while you finish the batch.
9. Serve stacked with maple syrup and fresh berries.

Chef Tips

- Room-temperature buttermilk hydrates the flour more evenly and gives a lighter crumb.
- The baking soda reacts with the buttermilk acid — don't mix and let batter sit more than 15 minutes or it will lose lift.
- For extra-fluffy pancakes, separate the eggs, whisk the whites to soft peaks, and fold in last.
