Tags: salad, vegetarian, gluten-free, dinner, autumn | Prep: 20 min | Cook: 50 min | Serves: 4

Ingredients

- 600 g mixed beetroot (red and golden), scrubbed
- 3 tbsp olive oil
- Salt and black pepper
- 4 tbsp balsamic vinegar
- 1 tbsp honey
- 120 g mixed salad leaves
- 150 g soft goats cheese, crumbled
- 60 g walnuts, toasted
- Small bunch of fresh mint leaves
- Dressing: 3 tbsp extra virgin olive oil, 1 tbsp sherry vinegar, 1 tsp Dijon mustard, salt and pepper

Method

1. Preheat oven to 200 °C.
2. Wrap beetroots individually in foil with a drizzle of oil and pinch of salt. Roast for 45–55 minutes until tender when pierced.
3. Allow to cool, then peel using kitchen paper (it slides off easily and saves your hands).
4. Cut beetroots into wedges. Toss in a bowl with balsamic vinegar and honey. Season.
5. Whisk together dressing ingredients.
6. Arrange salad leaves on a platter. Scatter beetroot over, then goats cheese, walnuts, and mint.
7. Drizzle dressing over the salad. Serve immediately.

Chef Tips

- Roast red and golden beetroots wrapped separately to prevent colour bleeding.
- Cool beetroot completely before adding to leaves or they will wilt immediately.
- Hazelnuts or pecans work equally well in place of walnuts.
